

Thank You For
45 YEARS

Dear Professional Salon Services Clients

Hope all is well and enjoying this Holiday Season. I wanted to first thank you for all your support to me, PSSI, and my family for the past 45 years. After being approached recently by numerous beauty supply distributors and with much thought and consideration, I have decided to sell the Davines portion of the PSSI business to Sullivan Beauty, located in Hooksett, New Hampshire.

This has been a great and rewarding journey for me, my family and my employees. We strove to make a difference in the beauty industry, and we achieved so much. Certainly, it could not have been done without you, our loyal and devoted clients.

We will be closing our Davines business on Tuesday December 31st. Our sales staff will be joining and be employed by Sullivan Beauty for an easy smooth transition. I will be assisting with the transition to ensure all obligations and planned support activities are met. Not to worry.

The Luxury Hair Brands, LLC importing business will remain open for our German and Italian color brands.

As my new journey is just beginning, your journey continues, a sincere thank you,
